NEWS

Choreography is going well in all classes! If your student misses for any reason then please have them review the dance videos so that they are prepared to learn new choreography when they return or to ask any clarifying questions.

Recital tickets will be going on sale soon so please keep an eye out for that! Ticket pickup will be the week of recital and you will need to have your account balance at $0 to receive them.

Are you interested in volunteering to help with recital? Great! Send us a message on Band if interested and we can get you some more information. All volunteers will need to get fingerprinted and complete a mandated reporter training.
